SCHOOL

Mrs. Marlee Parmiter, vocal music instructor, has been selected as the dedicatee for the 1979 Totem Pole.

Mrs. Parmiter has been at Bonner five years and in that time has added much to the curriculum and the agenda of the performances by the vocal music students. Her student load is in excess of 160 students and includes mixed chorus, a cappella and girls glee. In addition she has the Bonner Singers. A popular addition to the programs given by the vocal music department which she started is the annual "Club" programs. They are a showcase of the talent she is able to find and develop among her students.

Mrs. Parmiter has sent her students into competition and had seven students who made State KMEA Choir in Wichita. In addition, her students have performed in the EKL Choir with Dr. Eugene Butler in the area KCK workshop under Dr. McEwen of Arizona State.

Besides her classes and her many programs performed not only for school concerts but in community events, Mrs. Parmiter finds time to take her students to musical events such as the Lyric Opera, touring Broadway productions and the Dinner Theater productions in Kansas City.

To her students Mrs. Parmiter is a taskmaster who gets the best out of them. She teaches them to take pride in their ability and to give their best at all times. Because they have responded, they can be found entertaining some group or organization or giving a concert without hesitation and with enthusiasm.

Thank You, Mrs. Parmiter!

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste,
and remember what peace there may be in silence.
As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly, and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant, they, too, have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons,
they are vexations to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others,
you may become vain and bitter,
for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.
Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself, especially, do not feign affection.
Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of aridity and disenchantment
it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline,
be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.
And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

The Bonner Springs faculty couldn't be better. With dedication and patience they give us their best—in ideas, in example and in encouragement. We don't always respond positively, but we will always remember positively their brief effect on our lives.

The Board of Education—USD#204

A Board of Education is a group of people who meet regularly on behalf of a school district. They are elected and they run because they have a genuine interest in the condition and policies of the school system.

Unified District #204 has an unusual Board. They dedicate themselves to their job and work together in decision making for the 2,000 or more students in the schools. Budget, policy, complaints, planning, accepting and rejecting—these are the areas of work they ponder over. Nine people and their consciences work on our behalf. . .free. . .long hours. . .making the best decisions they can for the good of the entire district.

This year Mr. Rex Heffley will retire from service after fifteen years as a member of the Board. Mr. Ken Boyer served eight years and will retire this year, and Mrs. Carol Duncan retires from the Board after four years. Four members of the Board (Dr. Ted Stolfus, Mr. Rex Heffley, Mrs. Carol Duncan and Mr. Ken Tewell) had teenagers in the 1979 graduating class. Mr. Rex Heffley saw his fifth child receive a diploma.

There is no way to thank these people enough for their interest in our school district or for what they do to get the most and the best for us. But over 2,000 thank yous are in order—one from each and every one of us for a great board and a great job.

The Men at the Top

Mr. Don Stokesbury, Principal

Mr. Alton Morey,
Vice-Principal

Mr. Ed Nealy, Athletic Director

These men are always available to any student and to any member of the staff, whatever the need. The three see to it that arrangements are made for the events, that supervisors and chaperones are on duty, that the student body are behaving and that the staff are on duty doing their job. There are no easy days, but they are all busy days.

Mr. Stokesbury and Mr. Morey are seen talking to a student and to a member of the staff.

Talents to the Ear and to the Eye

Mrs. Mary Knowles, Crafts teacher.

Monty Schneck is a perfectionist with his craft skills.

These music students endure themselves in their singing.

The Bonner High Music department is one filled with talent and loyalty. The students work hard to entertain an audience with the direction of the two music teachers.

Our Arts and Crafts department is also one of talent, or learning to use the talent that is potential. Students are taught the basics of painting, pottery, working with silver, etc. The skills could prove to be very useful in the future.

Mr. Bill Flores, Instrumental Music Instructor.

Mrs. Marlee Parmiter, Vocal Music Instructor.

Language Arts Covers Many Bases

Ms. Georganna Herron

Mrs. Arroline Zumbrunn

Mrs. Gisela Weber

A Language Arts class is kept busy exploring the library.

Among the many areas covered by Language Arts, there is the reading laboratory and the work study program. The reading lab helps students with their reading skills, and the work-study program gives students an opportunity to earn while they learn.

Students discuss a point in class.

"Playing the Numbers"

Kevin Moore, a first year teacher here at Bonner, gives one of his students a "disgusting" look of being right.

Mrs. Jared spreads her knowledge willingly to all her students.

Mrs. Haussler, Algebra I and General Math teacher, shows her students how it is done.

Brett Burton gives Mrs. Jared an "I'm so confused look."

"Taking Care of Business"

Mr. Scott Tichenor, teacher of Business Law, General Business, Typing I, and Business Machines, chats with his students in one not so busy moment.

Mrs. French, teacher of Secretarial Training, Typing I and II, gives her cheery smile for the camera.

Mr. Ted Stephans, instructor for Distributive Education and Office Education, takes time out to help student Su Sproules.

Mrs. Mallory, Bookkeeping and Typing teacher, gives one of her students, Tim Umbenhower, the "evil eye."

Tammy Beeves, typing student, is concentrating very hard on her lesson.

Citizenship Leadership Values

This department teaches the valuable lessons of good citizenship. They expose students to the current problems and aid them in the discussion and research necessary to making good judgments.

The "Nature" of Science Could Be a "Chemical" Reaction

Mr. Richard Nelson; Physics, Chemistry, and Biological Studies.

Miss Janet Steiner and Mr. Wilson help each other out.

Mr. Dennis Wilson; Biological Studies.

Mr. Dennis Wilson and Mr. Richard Nelson form an interesting science unit together. If you are interested in living things, Mr. Wilson can be of help in that area. In fact, living things can be observed in his room. He has a few living animals in cages and some preserved ones on display. Mr. Richard Nelson is the one who can tell you all about chemical reactions, demonstrate experiments, and get "physical" about things.

Rick Stine seems to find Biology amusing.

John Bonee and Janie Ochoa work together on a class assignment.

The Basic Four, Sewing and More

Miss Patterson is ready and willing to instruct her students on the skills of sewing a garment.

The four basic food groups always seem to amaze Mrs. Honacki.

The Home Ec department, under the instruction of Miss Patterson and Mrs. Honacki, teaches a variety of things related to the home economics category. Housing design, home economics careers, fashion, and the study of fabrics are all included in the class. Students who take this class come out of it with a lot of useful information, other than just how to cook and sew.

Above: Barbara Maier, Susan Stoner, and Candie Jeffers discuss what they were just taught.

The Nuts and Bolts Department

Mr. Hervey Fox, General Shop and Electricity. Mr. Richard Burns, General Shop and Drafting.

Amos Davis is the keeper of the toolroom.

Students get a variety of experiences in this department while they learn. They use equipment and tools they have never seen before. In the course of four years, many discover that they enjoy building or fixing.

Mike Crosby is trying to jump-start himself.

Mr. Robert Reeves, General Shop, Metals and Welding. Mr. William Vitt, General Shop, Auto Mechanics.

The Teachers Who Give Us the Run Around

One of the sure things around Bonner High is that the Braves like their sports. With all of the freshmen and sophomores in physical education and with the participation of the students in all sports, the courts, stadium and wherever are used and busy. Skills, endurance and good physical conditioning become a fact.

Our school district is very lucky to have its bus transportation. The bus drivers drive through all kinds of weather, take students on field trips, sports events, and provide a lot of students with a ride home safely. These bus drivers have a big responsibility, and they do us many favors, so let's give them our respect.

Kayettes in Action

Mrs. Spillman and Ernie Blanks looked pleased with the can drive results.

The Kayettes are a well organized group and very active throughout the school year. They sponsored a canned food drive, make things at Christmas time, do activities for the nursing homes, have bonfires for the athletes, etc. All these activities are greatly appreciated by everybody.

Kayette members take great interest at their meetings.

Julie Clark discusses future activities with the other Kayettes.

Kayettes Host Regional Conference

With their big "K" and torch, showing who they are, looming in the Commons and their theme banner of "Alive and Aware" telling everyone what they are about, the Kayettes appeared for their conference. Around 400 Kayettes from the region came to get new ideas and to share ideas and just to get acquainted with other Kayettes.

With the school decorated for the occasion and the guests arriving, Bonner Kayettes were proudly welcoming and checking in the regional Kayettes.

With Inspiration and Cheer Resulting

Sheryl Laing, Jan Cox, Suzanne Lee, Kim Stanley and Elaine Benz are "Alive and Aware."

Jennifer Hand and Mary Gale Bernardel "keep things poppin'".

Paula Ladd heads for the well.

Jan Cox and Janis Reynolds wheel down the hall with a smiling "coffee, tea or me."

Meetings are well-attended, and Kayettes and their guests collect information.

Ideas, inspiration and humor abound as Kayettes gather information to take back to their groups.

Rough, Exciting. . . Powder Puff Football

The Powder Puff football game is a highlight of the Kayette year. And each year the Kayettes put more into it, making it an exciting athletic event. They put forth great effort—and go to great lengths (bruises, black eyes) to win.

Gail Kirk shows her fearless and fantastic style as she carries the ball for a td.

Determination and physical force along with energy and good coaching make these plays exciting to watch and unpredictable in their conclusion.

Bonner Darkens When Eclipse of '79 Occurs

The Big Cover-Up

North America's last solar eclipse of the century (right) was obscured by a cold gray cloud cover along much of the path of totality. But eclipse buffs near Roundup, Mont. (left), and other viewing areas in the U.S. Northwest and Canada were luckier. Armed with telescopes, cameras and other paraphernalia, they let out joyful whoops under mostly clear skies as the moon's shadow raced toward northern Greenland. It was an all too brief show—as long as 2 min. 36 sec. in Helena, Mont., less than a minute elsewhere—and a rare one. It will be a spell until the next U.S. performance: A.D. 2017.

Students observe the eclipse through a variety of techniques. The most common type was the use of two pieces of paper, one with a small pinhole in it. The cloudless day made it easy to observe.

As seen on the left: FHA members enjoy their exercise, especially volleyball. They enjoy making treats in the kitchen. And they enjoy their fun—a hat day at school, and Deidre McDonald wears some kind of HAT!

One of FHA's projects was collecting canned food for the needy. They sponsored a contest, and Mr. Kevin Moore's freshman math class won. FHA gave the whole class a party for their generosity.

FHA Conference Has Variety

On November 6, 1979, the Future Homemakers of America of Bonner Springs High School hosted the annual regional conference for the day. Attending schools were Basehor, Tonganoxie, Effingham, Shawnee Mission Northwest and Shawnee Mission North.

The conference included a scrapbook and poster display, a speech and creed contest and contests for ribbons in all areas of Home Ec.

The theme of the conference was "I'm Okay, You're Okay,"—to learn and to share ideas—and it was carried out thoroughly throughout the day.

Entertainment for the day included a program of song and dance by the Bonner High Singers, a sing-along led by the district officers, a performance by the "Flintstones", a singing group from the Johnson County Community College.

The highlight of the conference was a speech by Dr. Chub from Baldwin, Kansas.

JCL—the Latin Lovers

JCL is one of the active clubs holding together the Latin students in a variety of activities over the year. A slave auction, State convention, annual picnic and just the common bond of learning Latin and early Roman culture give these students that necessary ingredient to enjoy their get togethers.

JCL'ers seem to be enjoying one of their regular meetings.

Jeff Kirby and Laura Kennedy show their award winning entries in State Latin projects. Kirby shows a decoupage of a Roman print, and Laura has a hooked rug she made with a Latin inscription, "Beware of the Dog."

An International Dinner—a Gourmet's Delight

Once a year the Spanish, French and Latin students pool their culinary abilities and come up with an International Dinner. They try insofar as possible to prepare foods that are typical of the culture they have learned about in their foreign language classes.

The preparation isn't half as much fun as the eating. A buffet line is full of the "ahs" and "mms", and the eating is a gastronomic treat.

Tom Ballard—Injun Joe. . .the Bravest Brave

In the hallowed halls of Braveland, it is customary to select one Brave who stands out as the best representative of the tradition of the Braves. . .

Strong of body. . .
 Handsome of countenance. . .
 Wise of mind. . .
 Loyal of spirit. . .

The choice for 1979 was Tom Ballard, who was described as 138# of brute strength.

He was introduced with these words: Enjoy the unusual plasticity of those trapezius muscles and the tight but flexible latissimus dorsi muscles as they hug the rib cage firmly. Without question the cervical, thoracic and lumbar vertebrae match each other from the base of his skull to his sacrum—a beam holding up a tower of power.

Where else but in Braveland would you see the rippling beauty of such pectoralis major muscles as they cover a chest that holds a strong loyal heart.

Look now at the flex of those deltoid and bicep muscles that have the power to crush and the gentleness to hold.

This Brave would be Hercules to the Greeks, but to us he is Tom Ballard, competent, competitive Brave.

More Groups—Ready to Perform

The Mixed Chorus group—large in number and sound.

Two faculty members join the vocal music department at a concert. Mr. Scott Tichenor with his guitar and Mrs. Parmiter at the piano accompany Mr. Richard Burns in an Irish ballad.

Girls' Glee Officers: Brenda Mosier, Treasurer; Jennifer Hand, Secretary; Lisa Hornick, Vice-President; Cathy Goble, President.

Mr. Max Brown, drama director, performs a vocal solo at one of the yearly concerts.

The finale of a fun night—performers and audience had an enjoyable and relaxed night.

The Vocal Music department includes three major groups—A Cappella, Girls' Glee and Mixed Chorus. It also contains a selected group known as the Bonner High Singers. The department has some 170 students involved in vocal music.

These students give school concerts, perform for community organizations and at a variety of community functions. They represent the school at its best—looking good, singing well, and always appearing as if they are enjoying their performances as much as their audience. Mrs. Parmiter's leadership keeps the agenda for this department an ever enlarging one.

"And They Danced the Night Away"

A Touching Drama

Director Max Brown discusses the characters, David and Lisa to the lead actors Darryl Corcoran and Joann McNealy.

Alan Swinford works as David's psychiatrist (Bryan King).

David's mother, Lisa Heffley, shows her over-protective attitude about her son.

Jeff Dawson and Lang Howell discuss David's problem.

"David and Lisa"

Darryl Corcoran as David.

David reaches out to Lisa (Joann McNealy).

"David and Lisa," a touching drama about two mentally disturbed adolescents, did much to captivate its audiences. Cast as David was freshman Darryl Corcoran. Lisa was portrayed by sophomore Joann McNealy. This sensitive drama held the audience between laughter and tears, and brought the audience to their feet.

Victor Miller (a porter) tells Susan Leininger (Sandra) what he thinks of her.

Reigning queen Robin Gravatt crowns Sonya as the Christmas Queen of 1978.

Sonya Vickers Reigns Over Christmas Party

"Fairy tales can come true"

Unable to choose between Santa or Russell,
Sonya dances with both as the evening festivities get under way.

The Highlight Event of the Holiday Season

Marsha Mindedahl smiles as her date catches 40 winks.

Seniors Jeff Harrington and Kim Cochran enjoy their last Christmas dance together.

Tony Stephan, senior, and freshman Becky Molder seem to be enjoying the whole affair.

Queen Attendant Eva Hickmon and her date, Larry Hardy, have no doubt that they are glad they attended the dance.

Richard Pruitt and his date don't mind the intrusion of the cameraman.

Club '79 Shows Off Their Talent

Singers performing with togetherness.

Phillip Boyer serenades the audience.

Brenda Mesmer, Jeff Brown, and Kyla Stolfus are just bummin' around.

George Espinoza and Ronna Schultz monkeying around.

Susan and Erin Shevling (are they identical?) sing of sisterly love.

Brent Weber takes Janie Ochie, Erin Shevling, and Mark Mies for a Sunday drive.

Mark Mies and Laura Goble declare their love with "Paper Roses," as Brent Weber tries to step in on them.

Alumni Return for 5th Anniversary

Janie Ochoa in a rendition of "Goin' Up Yonder."

Susan Leininger in "There's No Business Like Show Business."

Alumna Diane Stine returns to the Bonner Stage.

Alumnus Darrel Newton performs again.

Nina Kimbrough sings the Blues.

Alumnus Roger Lewis shows how much he has changed over the last 5 years.

Students Stage Simon Comedy

Philip Boyer, Jeff Pembleton and Erin Shevling open the play in their "jammies."

Above: David Stewart and Dajuana Quillan, along with Erin Shevling, Jeff Pembleton and Lisa Heffley, brave the sub-zero temperatures inside their house. Below: The cast has a relaxing romp during rehearsal.

Susan Lieninger searches the floor for her spectacles.

God's Wrath Strikes Bonner Stage

Erin Shevling and Jeffy Pembleton pray for an end to the energy crisis in their living room.

Lisa Heffley, Erin Shevling and Jeff ("flipper-feet") Pembleton are reassured of the family's safety.

WHO'S CRAZY

The Characters Face a Variety of Crises

Phil Boyer does his imitation of a crazed mouse as Brent Weber and Lisa Heffley look on (in disgust).

Above: Brent Weber delivers a threat to God while the technical crew provide "realistic" lightning and thunder. Right: The play draws to a happy close as Lisa Heffley tells of her successful venture on a celebrity game show and DaJuana Quillan gives thanks for fried chicken.

Bonner's "Tiffany" —a Night of Food and Fun

Mr. Brown circulates among the guests as they dine on homemade lasagna.

Brenda Mesmer, Mark Mies, Shawn Sorrell and Lang Howell sing "The Hunter", a British drinking song.

Brent Weber and Janie Ochoa as the Bonner High Singers give their rendition of one of Britain's "ballads"—the "Ghost of Anne Boleyn."

Kyla Stolfus, backed by the Bonner High Singers, shows the enthusiasm for singing that made the pre-play performance of the "kazoos" a lot of fun.

Laura Goble was as good a "Liza" as you will see anywhere in her rendition of "Oh, Wouldn't It Be Lovely."

The Importance of Being "Earnest"

The second annual "Dinner Theater" production was another highlight in the events presented by the Drama Department. Food, music and a play right here at Bonner High—our competition to Waldo Astoria.

Jeff Pembleton and Bryan King in friendly competition. An argument over whose muffins and whose tea is part of the importance of trivia they illustrated.

The play was a farce on English manners, and the students became Victorian in manner and speech. The dialogue was a confusion of names and people—with everyone wondering who was whom and what was what.

Prim Miss Prism (Marsha Mindedahl), seems to melt around the dignified Dr. Chesible (Shawn Sorrell).

Cecily (Erin Shevling) makes a note of Algy's declaration of love. A girl had to make sure then and now.

Jack and Gwendolyn (Bryan King and Vivienne Murphy) in a state of shock when the real identity of Earnest is revealed.

Lady Bracknell (Lisa Heffley) personified the dowager type who insisted on absolute propriety—and a rich husband for her daughter.

The Plot Thickens, and Thickens, Then Thins

Cecily and Gwendolyn, at first suspicious of each other, begin to realize they better stick together and do so over tea and cake.

Lady Bracknell dominates her daughter with unrelenting will-power and a "go to the carriage" order

And Lady Bracknell has to adjust her propriety a bit when she finds out that her daughter's suitor was found in a handbag.

How can a girl get anywhere with her governess and the church rector with her constantly? But Cecily suggests that they take a stroll in the garden, and they seem to think her suggestion is an innocent thoughtfulness.

That prim Miss Prism becomes the one who knows who and where that baby (Earnest) was found.

This year students in Crafts brought back five Gold Key awards from the Regional Scholastic Art Contest in Wichita.

Then in April, 1979, word came that Monty Schneck and David Bjorgaard had been awarded National Gold Medals for their three-dimensional designs.

Monty's winning entry was an ebony-ivory inlay ring box. David's winning piece was a silver wire woven tea set in miniature. David's tea set will be featured in a film strip, "International Art by Talented Teen-Agers."

The Gold Medal pieces will be on exhibit along with the other winners at the Union Carbide Exposition Hall in New York City, June 6-27. They will be returned to the winners sometime in September.

Open House—Parents Go Back to School

Mrs. Wood, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Morey and Mr. Chatterton discuss the school with the parents of their students.

Once a year the school is open for the express purpose of allowing the parents to go through the school day with their teenager. This is done under friendly circumstances and to help the parents understand the objectives the school and faculty are working toward. With entertainment and refreshments, the evening is one of friendly enlightenment.

Family and faculty enjoy the refreshments—Bonner High's famous cinnamon rolls.

Janine Allen begins to get it all sorted out.

Assisting in the darkroom, Danny Miller takes a moment out for a pose.

Lisa Stanley expresses her feelings towards the Totem Pole.

Eva Hickman wonders if the work will ever end.

Jesse Ford glances back to see how it's done.

Students and Children Learn from Each Other

Lisa Hornick and Janice Jennings are children at play.

The Child Development Class, taught by Martha Patterson, is an educational one, as well as a lot of fun. Students learn the basic things about a child, from the time he is a newborn baby, until the time he is five years old. Later, the children arrive, and the high school students teach them skills, and help them be creative.

Little Amie Blanks learns to trim the tree.

Above: Halloween fun. Below: Randy Davis and Ronnie Hernandez remember what it is like to be young.

Janine Allen plays Santa Claus.

Space Attack—Brandon Mural an Unusual Feat

Not many students get an opportunity to leave something of themselves at their high school when they leave—something tangible. But Barry Brandon got that chance and left a mural that will make his name echo thru the halls of his alma mater longer than most.

The task of painting a space mural—his favorite subject—seemed relatively simple. All he had to do was transfer the ideas and drawings in his sketch book onto the wall, and he had hundreds of sketches of space objects.

But the 10' by 20' wall became a pretty formidable object, and the task took many more hours and more paint and brushes than he anticipated. It also made him appreciate those painters who had done walls and ceilings as he painted details on a wall taller than he or on a space a couple of feet from the floor.

But the finished product pleased him and many others. He stepped back from his colorful mural and realized that he had indeed achieved an additional dimension with his talent.

Entering the World of Business Via DE and OE

Mr. Ted Stephens teaches students about the world of business. Then he puts them into the world of business in a cooperative program so they may earn and learn. Businessmen become their teachers, and business becomes the name of the game. The students respond to the responsibility by doing so well that the business community is happy to cooperate every year.

Gina Lundblade, a Distributive Education student, straightens the stock while working at the IGA store.

Anne Tewell, an Office Education student, gives that electric typewriter a real workout.

Cruz Ramirez, an Office Education student, was the class champion typist.

Carla Brown, an Office Education student, composes a letter for her boss.

Danyale McDonald, a Distributive Education student, has finished displaying the milk and cheese at the IGA.

Lisa Everhart, an Office Education student, knows the 10 key calculator like the back of her hand.

Pat McCourt, a Distributive Education student, has just rung up a sale at the 7-Eleven Store.

Craftsman of the Year Jon Espy

Once in a while you get a kid that is bursting with talent and ability. He works endlessly hard, many hours after school extra. He invents his own tools, invests his own money in establishing his collection of tools and supplies, tries all kinds of experimental projects, shows great respect for his materials, puts out great amounts of effort, teaches others around him and generally shows a kind of talent and enthusiasm that generally could be called Old Time Craftsmanship. This kind of kid doesn't come along very often—that's why we don't give this award very often—but this year, for the first time in 3 years, I've found this kind of kid; and so we are giving him this special award this year—CRAFTSMAN OF THE YEAR—Jon Espy.

Secretaries Take Their Bosses to a Coffee Break

Happiness is Working with You was the theme of a coffee break that Mrs. Deena French and her secretaries had for the businessmen of Bonner who cooperate in the program of on-the-job training.

This year, the secretaries added a very hospitable and tasty coffee break to their entertainment schedule. Their Bosses' Dinner was held with a banquet and program later in the year.

The debaters, like the cross-country team, had four year pros this year. This could have only led to a double state championship, and it almost did. But because of some uncontrollable circumstances, the debaters became snowed in at the hotel and snowed out of the Regional Tournament.

Mr. Max Brown, forensic coach who started the program just three years ago, has uncovered talent galore and produced a very competitive team.

Out of this team emerged Lisa Heffley who captured medal after medal with her performances. And she will be the girl representative from Eastern Kansas at the National Forensic League competition held in Cincinnati in June 1979. Lisa won the place with dramatic interpretation, but she will also compete with her original oration and in poetry and prose.

SPRINGING SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

No matter which sport it is, we have a group of competitive participants and a dedicated coach. With that combination we gave a variety of exciting evenings on the field, court mat or track. This year our cross-country team and our girls' basketball team brought us exciting events as they went to the top—cross-country in the State and girls' basketball to sub-state.

Bravettes Best Season Ever!

Behind new Head Coach Jim Conaway, and seven returning letterwomen, the girls' basketball team posted 13-5 record. That constituted the most wins in one season. They had the highest finish ever in a sub-state tournament—placing second. They placed second in EKL and third in the DeSoto tournament.

Junior Cheryl Chambers (21) made all-EKL and was voted the team's most valuable player. Carol McGraw, sophomore, and Gail Kirk, senior, shared the top-scorer honors for the season.

Coach Jim Conaway was selected as Coach of the Year by the Kansas City, Kansas and the Bonner Springs High School Pow Wow.

State	10th Place

The Senior Grapplers

Tom Ballard—Champion: Bonner Invitational, EKL, Regional, Sub-State; Runner-up to the State Champion in 1978.

Nick Palmentere—4th in EKL and Regional.

Mike Mosier—Qualified for Regional.

Mark Snavelly—2nd in EKL and Regional.

Dale Taylor—4th in EKL, 3rd in Regional, 4th in Sub-State.

Wrestlers Who Don't Rest

Featuring young powers at the lighter weights and senior, Tom Ballard at 138 pounds, Coach Dick Burns had another great year on the mats. His team placed tenth in the state, third in the district meet, first in the sub-state tournament and third in the EKL. The Braves also won their own invitational and finished with an 8-4 dual record. Burns will have eight lettermen back next year.

The Raciest Gals at Bonner High

Just her first year at the helm, Coach Jill Mullins directed the girls to their best season ever. Bonner placed second in the state, captured the regional championship and knocked Miego off the EKL throne. Her squad nearly rewrote every school record and claimed a team trophy in eight of their nine meets. And she did this while she hobbled on a leg cast herself.

Senior members of the track team: Mary Gale Bernardel, Angie Newton, Monique White and Phyllis Gray.

The 440 relay team: Monique White, Carol McGraw, Diane Sanders, Phyllis Gray.

The 880 relay team: Monique White, Diane Sanders, Carol McGraw and Viesta Suffren.

The 440 relay team: Viesta Suffren, Clara Phoenix, Diane Sanders, Carol McGraw.

The mile relay team: Cheryl Chambers, Nina Kimbrough, Carol McGraw and Viesta Suffren.

Viesta Suffren shows her sprinting style as she crosses the finish line.

Cheryl Chambers puts everything to work for herself in her l.o.n.g jump.

The 1978-79 Cindermen of Bonner High

The 1978-79 track team was the biggest ever. They are: Front row, left to right: Paul Bush, Greg Gorman, Russell Pino, Tom Ballard, Mark Mosier, Dale Taylor, John Kobialka, Nick Summers, Mike Mosier, Alan Dalsing. Second row: Harold Smith, Dan Miller, Bruce Scott, August Lietzen, Solomon Burke, Mark Newton, Terry Fletcher, Steve Conn, John Young. Third row: Dan Ballou, Ray Mosier, John Reed, Doug McGough, Marlin Grove, Jim Martin, Dan Vitt, Robert Pitts, Ladru Wall, Tim McGraw, Ed Deleon, Rick McGraw, Tom Klotz, Ken Hinson. Back row: Mike Hall, Coach Atwell, Tom Kobialka, Coach Mintner, Dan Taylor, Troy Brown, Anthony McDonald and Mike Kelly.

Chris Foulk, Alan Dalsing, Russell Pino and Don Meier — the fastest men in Braveland.

The 1979 Putters of Braveland

Golfers Claim Medals

The foursome on the left claimed the first team medals for Bonner in five years. They won a playoff to capture third place medals in the four-man division of the Garnett Invitational. Mark Hestand, right, was the only senior letterman on the golf team in 1979. Hestand led the 4-man team, also consisting of Tim Prichard, Steve Sill and Kyle Kirchner, to a second place finish in the EKL meet.

The year goes by, and the Braves put forth their best effort in every area...sports...drama...music...classrooms...club activities...debate...forensics...and at the end of the year we find that we have reached some exciting goals.

There are trophies and statistics that say when the Braves are competing, they give it their best.

Citizen of the Year—Mark Lee

Roger Mignot, Counselor, and Dr. Carlos Cooper, publisher of Veterinary Medicine Magazine and member of the Kansas Legislature, congratulate Mark Lee.

Mark Lee being awarded the Citizenship of the Year award by Mr. Don Stokesbury, principal.

One of the most prestigious awards is the Citizenship Award. The criteria for the award includes the best in values and behavior. They include such measurements as respect for Flag, Constitution and National Anthem, as well as respect for fellow students, community, property and religious convictions of others. The award includes responsibility to build school pride and assume citizenship responsibilities. And, finally, a reverence and concern for life.

Mark Lee has demonstrated these traits in abundance. His devotion to his craft, sports writing, has been with great pride and has brought about a school pride. Coaches and athletes alike know that his writing is always fair to them and that he will write up any and every game with dignity and interest.

His hours of duty have been unbelievable, but it has always been with pride and humor. He never missed a game or a deadline, and he never came back from an interview with a coach or athlete without a new friend.

Tiptop Two on the Totem Pole

Kyla Stolfus, the 1979 senior class Valedictorian, not only had good grades, but was also very involved in many activities. These activities include: Student Council, Kayettes, Pep Club, Band, Pep Band, Pit Band, Stage Band, Acappella, Girls' Glee, Vocal Music Contest, Bonner Singers, School Plays, State Piano Contest, District Honor Band, District Honor Choir, and National Honor Society.

Kyla Stolfus (Salutatorian) and Carol Stine (Valedictorian) were the top two in the class of 1979.

The senior class Salutatorian, Carol Stine, also was involved in many outside activities besides her schoolwork. Carol's activities included: Kayettes, Acappella, Vocal Music Contest, Volleyball, District Honor Choir, State Piano Contest, and Active member of National Business Honor Society.

Booster Club Honors Athlete with Fall Banquet

Below: Coach Pat Sears congratulates the volleyball team on their good season. Second down: Mr. Jim Conoway, assistant cross-country coach, tells the champion cross-country team that he was proud to be a part of their team. Third down: Coach Ken Atwell proudly tells the guests about the champion cross-country team and their records.

Coach Jo Mintner awaits his turn to present the football team as Mr. Ed Nealy, Athletic Director, opens the program at the Sports Banquet.

Twice a year the Booster Club sponsors a sports banquet to honor the high school athletes and their coaches. The community shows their appreciation of the efforts of the coaches and their pride in their teenagers' achievements by reserving this special evening for them.

Mark Lee, super sports reporter, in his most inquiring pose. The Booster Club surprised Bonner High's ace reporter by presenting him with an electric typewriter as a token of their appreciation for his four years of excellent reporting of the sports activities of the high school. Below: Mr. Conoway presents the certificates to the senior members of the cross-country team.

Best Wishes to the Class of 1979 from Interstate Federal Savings and Loan.

Spring Sports Banquet Honors Many

Many athletes, coaches and managers received honors, but Greg Gorman and Angie Newton claimed the top awards as Most Outstanding Athletes at the Spring Sports Banquet. A committee selected the athlete of the year winners based upon their participation, varsity letters and recognition in their athletic career at BSHS. They also said that the main purpose behind the award is to encourage athletes to participate in three sports every year.

Approximately 100 athletes and managers received honors in basketball, wrestling, track and golf. Cheerleaders, Pompon girls, sponsors, administrators and Bonner Booster Club members were also recognized for their contribution to BSHS' athletic program.

Angie Newton, Most Outstanding Girl Athlete.

Greg Gorman, Most Outstanding Boy Athlete.

Some special awards and announcements were made at the banquet. The wrestling team honored their head coach, Dick Burns, with a wonderful wrestling trophy. After 17 years at the helm, Coach Burns is the Dean of all coaches at BSHS.

Ken Atwell, cross-country head coach and distance track coach, received a bright orange running suit from his senior team members.

In girls' track, freshman sensation Viesta Suffren was voted the most inspirational runner of the year by her teammates.

Annual Thespians Grammy Awards

Mr. Max Brown, Drama director, hosted the Thespian Grammy Award night at the Washington Street Station. The award night ends an exceptional year in forensics, debate and theatre here at Bonner Springs High. Upper left: Best Actress, Lisa Heffley. Upper right: Best Actor, Darryl Corcoran. Lower left: Technical Award, Scott Hoch. Lower right: Best Supporting Actress, Erin Shevling. Middle: Best Supporting Actor, Lang Howell. A job well done.

All the winners are standing by their fearless leader, Max Brown. They honored him for his great leadership.

The Forensics, Debate and Theatre students have a busy year preparing their debate arguments, their forensics presentations and putting on their plays. They end the year with a night of fun, food and awards at the Washington Street Station—and the Bonner Springs version of the "Grammy" is anticipated.

You're Old Enough to. . .Dance the Night Away

The prom of 1978-1979 was a "Moonlight Serenade" held at the Holiday Inn. Music was provided by The Butch Silver Band. The prom proved to be a fun and entertaining evening with the music, the refreshments, and the atmosphere of friendship.

Tammy Bennett and alumnus Glen Dowding seem to be a happy couple at the prom.

Richard Pruitt begins to wonder if Mary Gail is going to shy away from him the whole night.

Darren Bennett thinks his plans for the evening are pretty slick. His date, Susan Harvey, seems to agree with him.

Couples attending the dance rest for a moment to listen to what one of the band members had to say.

Jana Bevier straightens Alan Dalsing's boutonniere before they leave for the prom.

Mr. Stokesbury once again puts his two cents in!

As we, the Class of 1979, have graduated, we have left behind much more than just empty chairs. We have left all the smiles, jokes, and generally crazy things we have done which will linger in the minds of those who follow us. We have set the example for next year's seniors to follow, and although the effect of that example has not been felt yet, we hope that the example they produce for the Class of '81 to follow will be even better than ours. But most of all, we wish to all of you the success and heartbreak and the happiness and tears that our high school years gave us.

And my personal thanks go to Mrs. Angela Wind for putting up with all the difficulties of producing this yearbook. But more importantly for showing us all a little bit of what life is really about.
